Canyon to Vote Saturday on Highway Bonds

"Every qualified citizen in Canyon should go to the polls Saturday and vote on the bond issue," stated Mayor W. A. Warren yesterday. "While there seems to be only a small opposition to the bond issue, it would greatly affect the interest rate on the bonds if carried by only a few voters."

While the interest rate is set out in the election call to not exceed 3%, Mr. Warren and members of the City Commission hope to get a much smaller rate, due to the splendid financial condition of the city.

The polls will open at 8 o'clock in the morning and will close at 7 o'clock in the evening. The election will be held at the City Hall.

The bond issue is for $95,000, but it is hoped that not all of this amount will be used for widening the highway. The money cannot be used for any other purpose.

"Why is it necessary to issue bonds in the amount of $95,000 in order to widen the highway through Canyon," asked a citizen the other day.

It is a good question and perhaps it has not been fully explained to the voters before they cast their ballots on next Saturday.

Here is the situation:

G. B. Heath, representing the City of Canyon in securing easements, has six cases in which he has been unable to make settlement. It looks like condemnation proceedings must be started against all of these property owners before the right-of-way may be secured.

The reason for the bond issue now is simply this: When condemnation proceedings are started, the city must be in position to put up CASH with the county clerk for the TOTAL AMOUNT OF DAMAGES ASKED BY THE PROPERTYY OWNER. Is must have the bonds before the cash will be available.

This does not mean that the property owner will get all of this cash. In fact the city believes that fully half of the bond issue will be saved and the bonds never issued.

There are only six property owners on the highway with whom agreements have not been reached as to the damages they might sustain with the widening of the highway. The city of Canyon must have the cash ready to put up when condemnation proceedings are started. It is possible that settlement may be possible with some of these property owners before the court finally takes action.

Highway bonds are issued for specific streets and for definite work. If all of the bonds are not needed, the city will not sell the bonds and the taxpayers therefore will not be out the cash necessary to redeem the bonds.

Condemnations proceedings will take time, at its best, and the decision of the Jury of View is subject to appeal should the property owner take the attitude of seeking a delay in the procedure. However, it is very unlikely that much delay will be experienced as it is the duty of the court to appoint disinterested, fair-minded men who will carefully weigh the damage asked by the property owners before they set the amount to be paid.

New Capital Is Added to Bank the Stockholders

At a meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank Monday the capital stock was increased from $50,000 to $100,000. The only step now necessary is for approval of the Comptroller in Washington, D. C., before it will be finally completed. It usually takes about a month for the final approval after all resolutions are received in Washington.

All stockholders of the bank were represented at the Monday meeting and all voted favorably for the change.

The stock of the late R. H. Wright had been received prior to the meeting, and was distributed among the four directors who bought this stock. There is only one small block of stock owned outside of Canyon now, this being in the name of W. H. Fuqua, who was an original stockholder when the bank was reorganized.

The 50th Anniversary of the bank will be observed on Friday, March 10. The bank will close at noon in order that employees may close the books and get ready for the open house starting at 1:30 o'clock. No banking business will be transacted during the afternoon. Free drinks and souvenirs will be given to all who call during the afternoon.

Union of Schools Is Approved by Official Boards

Consolidation of the Canyon Public schools and the Demonstration school has officially been approved by both trustees of the district and the Board of Regents.

Under the plan it is proposed to maintain the grades and junior high school in the training school building. All high school work would be conducted at the Canyon high school.

The trustees hope to have a more complete statement of operation before next week.

Dr. James P. Cornette issued the following statement Tuesday in favor of the consolidation:

"From both an official and a personal viewpoint I am very happy that the Board of Trustees of the Canyon Independent School District and the Board of Regents of West Texas State College have approved a contract which will effect the consolidation of the West Texas Demonstration School with the Canyon Public Schools.

"In my opinion such a consolidation will be not only of mutual benefit financially, but will result in both better schools for the children of the community to attend and also a better and more natural school situation in which future teachers may be trained.

"One of my greatest desires is that the college be an integral part of the community and that the community be an integral part of the college, and it appears to me that the pooling of our efforts for the education of all children will surely be one of the best ways for accomplishing this integration and at the same time providing a better school program for everyone concerned.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Canyon's Future Is Up to the Interest of the Voters

Saturday will be a fateful day so far as Canyon is concerned.

We can either go forward, by approving the $95,000 bond issue for the purpose of widening Highway 87 through Canyon; or we can remain static with the possibility of losing Highway 87 through Canyon in the long run.

We don't believe that the State Highway Commission is joking about building around Canyon if we refuse to widen the highway. We are certain that the Commission means just this, and nothing less. They are the boys with millions of dollars to spend, and they are building around towns and cities when they cannot secure the proper construction through these communities.

The cost of widening the highway will be a minor expense with the exception of half a dozen firms who will suffer a heavy financial loss in rebuilding to conform to the new plans. No one blames these firms for wanting a just recompensation, and it is up to the community to pay a just cost of rebuilding. This will be done—just as cheaply and just as economically as possible.

The individual voters will be supreme in this action.

We hope that the bond issue will receive a very heavy vote of not less than 1200 tax payers.

Bond issues are usually carried by a very small minority group. And bond issues are often defeated against the will of a majority when this majority does not take the time to go to the polls.

The bond issue is strictly up to you, Mr. and Mrs. Canyon Tax Payer. You can decide what the future of Canyon will be. We hope that you will go to the polls and express your opinion on this vital issue.

Government Not Organized; But Has Just Grown Up and Up

A speaker in Canyon last week expressed chagrin in finding that this great federal government of ours was never organized, but has grown up with its myrids of services.

We read a most revealing magazine article on this very subject about 20 years ago. The usual thing in Washington is to start some sort of public bureau or commission, innocent in size and in mission. Within half a dozen years this same commission or bureau will be employing thousands of persons, many of whom will be doing the same job as should be performed by some other person or group. In this manner our government grows, and grows and grows.

No sense in getting shocked about something that has been apparent to so many citizens for so long a time.

"Why don't they stop such foolishness?" cries out those who have just discovered this situation.

Simply because government has grown so big and has so many persons serving as lobbyists that it is next to impossible to dig down and get the truth.

Our Ego Is Crushed; Stepped On and Completely Humiliated

Our ego is smashed; stepped on; badly bruised and hurt—here we have been laboring week after week writing editorials.

While this page is generally read by subscribers to The Canyon News we have been told a half dozen times in recent months that the readers enjoy the short squibs at the bottom of these columns more than they do the long editorials—"windies" as they are often referred to by the readers.

All right; all right; we shall give you less long ones, and more short ones in the future—we hope.

The Newsman got his newspaper training from an old time publisher who believed that long articles was a waste of space, and we have never gotten over the idea of not writing long news articles. Perhaps we have been getting too long winded on the editorial page.

We shall see what we shall see.

Business Men Skinned of Cash

We see where a number of Hereford business men were fleeced out of several hundred dollars of supposedly "advertising" by a man who had nothing to sell.

The Hereford Chamber of Commerce had turned down the man, but the local firms bought and paid for this so-called advertising. Naturally the man skipped out with the money.

Serves them right, you say. What about Canyon? What about Canyon firms who blindly buy stuff that the Canyon Chamber of Commerce rejects?

Thugs In Jail Poor Investment

Spending a few htousand dollars annually in clean recreation and sportsmanship is a better investment for the community than paying for the support of thugs whom we sent to jail or to the penitentiary. These thugs have never learned the rules of life.

The trade-at-home idea rests upon co-operation between seller and buyer, with each making a contribution to the civic welfare. If either is selfish, or tries to get it all, the plan won't work.

Hope springs eternal, etc., and that is why most people think they will someday have more money than they need.

If you bothered less about somebody else's religion and attended a little bit more to your own you'd probably be better off.

Some of our readers are not interested in what's happening in Russia. Sometime in the next ten years, they may get interested.

One lesson that the world must learn: You can't have prosperity without trade, and you can't have trade without mutual benefits.

Business in small towns follows the same rule that it observes in large towns. That's why the alert, advertising merchant gets the cream.

Balancing the federal budget isn't any harder than balancing the average home budget, and the head of the house has no recourse to new taxes.

We never argue with a man, regardless of how crazy his opinion may be; we just try to be thankful that we are, at times, not quite so crazy.

Be Sure to Get Count of All Students Attending West Texas

Many towns and cities throughout the nation are up in arms because the Census Bureau has ruled that students shall be counted in the town where they are registered for college. Protests are being carried to Washington.

Since Congress was unable to secure a favorable change in the census to eliminate the question of income, we doubt whether individual towns and cities will succeed in their present demands.

There is talk of ignoring the mandate and counting students twice—once in the town where they attend college, and then again in their home towns. We rather imagine that if this practice becomes widespread that someone will get in trouble with Uncle spread that someone will get into trouble with Uncle time.

Since the census will be based upon actual student enrollment in Canyon, whoever takes the census should see to it that every student is counted. It may work against the interest of Canyon in many respects, but a rule is a rule, regardless of its wisdom.

Let's get 'em all counted.

President Truman Is Willing To Accept Another Term

The President made his political announcement the other day, which was no surprise to any one. He is willing to run again, provided he is on the same team. The team is a carry-over of the amalgamated following of voters from all walks of life, who have been drawn under the wings of Santa Claus.

The other day we heard a fellow simply pouring out his wrath against Truman. We asked him if he represented the sentiment of the voters of his home town. We were assured that his position was the position of all "thinking people." His town happened to turn in an almost unanimous vote for Truman in 1948. Asked what the vote would be in 1952, and he replied that it would likely be just about the same as four years previously.

In other words we sure do like to cuss the man in power, but continue voting for him when we personally benefit from his administration.

Crusade Against Crime Includes All Evils Within the Nation

The best crusade that we have seen coming out of Washington is for a national drive against crime. President Truman advocates this drive.

We humbly call his attention to the fact that as President of the greatest nation on earth that his words are hopeful to the ears of millions of Americans who have about lost faith in his administration and its spending sprees.

Furthermore, we call his attention to the fact that we cannot fight crime without a fight on criminals, brought about by liquor, gambling and wild life which has so frequently been associated with Truman and his past. Furthermore, we are not going to get very far with such a crusade with the leadership which calls his opponents ugly names, and who indulges in the common type of profanity.

Fighting crime is a full man's job, and requires sound leadership.

Hoover Commission Seeks to Lead Back to State of Sanity

Perhaps the least understoon commission in our federal government is the Hoover Commission. It was named in honor of the only past president, in spite of the passing sneer that we usually gave Hoover and the depression which started in his administration—caused by OUR foolishness.

The Hoover Commission is not trying to cripple America. It is simply trying to restore order from the Washington jumble, which few persons even claims to understand.

When you hear that the Hoover Commission is seeking to do this, that, or the other thing, just consider the source of such wild charges, and get the facts.

Neighbors Helping Canyon

Two men in neighboring towns are so much interested in the success of the proposed Recreational Program in Canyon that they have made substantial cash contributions.

That's a fine example. Let's get busy and save the boys and girls of the community by offering them clean supervised recreation in their play. When they learn the rules of good sportsmanship they will learn the lesson of good, honest living.

Statistics: It takes $1.71 now to buy what the dollar would buy in 1939 when, if you remember, we had what some financial experts called a phoney dollar.

Now is the time to make your definite plans for beautifying your yard and garden. Remember: if you don't do it, nobody will do it for you.

State governments would have more power if they had shown, in the past, a greater willingness to levy the taxes necessary to meet modern needs for their population.

Legislative bodies are supposed to produce laws through a meeting of minds but the result often leads to the remark, "what minds."

It may be so, as the saying goes, but you can't make the average man believe that he works one-fourth of his time for the government.

Wealthy people have done much for humanity but if you think they can't be tight, try to get a liberal contribution from one of them.

It won't be long now before the census takers will begin to test the Chamber of Commerce population figures for many municipalities.

The U. S. Government has no infinite supply of money, regardless of what some of the other nations believe.

Who remembers the good old days when the newspapers had reporters who used their legs and got news?

The hardest face will break into a smile when you throw out a broad compliment to the owner of that face.

Everybody has heard of the Free State of Van Zandt—maybe you'd be interested in learning how it got that name.

It is of course Van Zandt County and was named for Isaac Van Zandt, a statesman of Texas Republic days, who was minister from Texas to the United States and played an important part in the annexation of Texas to the United States. While he was running for Governor, he died. This brilliant man was only 34.

One of the best known families in Fort Worth are descendants of Isaac Van Zandt.

But how did Van Zandt County come to be called the Free State of Van Zandt?

Well, the story is that during the War between the states, the citizens of Van Zandt County became dissatisfied with the way things were going. Texas had, of course, seceded from the Union so there was a mass meeting and Van Zandt County seceded from Texas and also from the world!

After the war, they met again and rejoined Texas, the Union and the world.

That's the story, anyway.

"The Horse's Prayer" is by an unknown author:

To thee, my master, I offer my prayer. Feed me, water me and care for me; and when the day's work is done, provide me with shelter, a clean, dry bed and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort.

Talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins.

Pet me sometimes that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you.

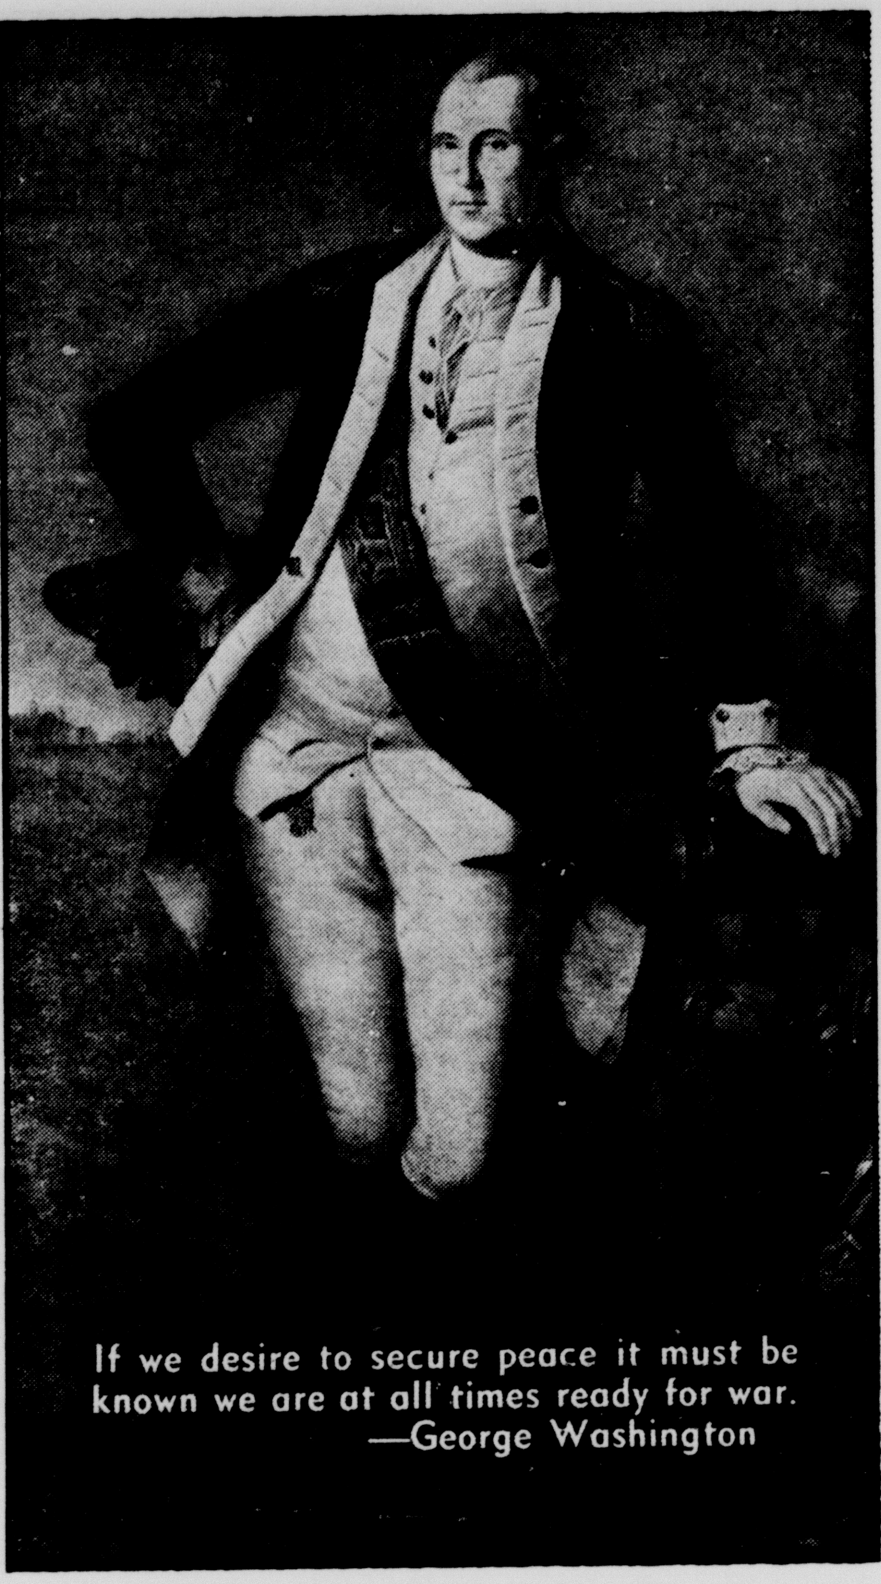
Do not jerk the reins and do not whip me when going uphill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you want, but give me a chance to understand you.

Watch me and if I fail to do your bidding, see if something is not wrong with my harness or my feet. Examine my teeth when I do not eat. I may have a bad tooth and that, you know is very painful.

Do not tie my head in an unnatural position or take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my tail.

And finally, oh my master, when my useful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner to be slowly tortured and starved to death; but do thou, my master, take my life in the kindest way, and your God will reward you, here and hereafter.

You will not consider me irreverent if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a stable. Amen.



If we desire to secure peace it must be known we are at all times ready for war.
—George Washington

P.T.A. FATHERS' NIGHT PROGRAM ENTIRE SUCCESS

Canyon P.T.A. Program presided over by the men was hilarious from beginning to end. W. E. Miller was superb as presiding officer. Dr. R. A. Neblett read most interesting minutes of the last meeting. (Who composed those minutes is a mote question.) Crews Henry's family are happy that he is more successful selling cows than magazines. (Perhaps his approach is different.)

For the serious and truly profitable section of the program two officers from the Highway Department gave instructive talks on Safety Instruction. Dr. James P. Cornette gave an excellent discussion of "Teamwork for Good Citizenship."

During the social hour S. L. Johnston and his committee served ham, coffee and sandwiches. Those serving wore beautiful organdy aprons in pastel shades.

Harrells on Trip To See Ranches In South America

WPAP's Cattlemen's Tour met in the Texas Hotel in Ft. Worth to begin the flight on Saturday, February 11, over Pan-American Airways to Latin American countries.

Newton Harroll signed 500 school bonds in Dallas Thursday and met Friday with other members of the Board of Regents to confer with College Presidents on their current problems before leaving on the trip.

Mrs. Rob Campbell of Bushland, who was chosen as Texas' Outstanding Woman of the year, 1948, was on the Ft. Worth and Denver as we came down. She was enroute to Biloxi, Miss., to a convention.

WBAP and the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram, owned by Amon Carter, are pioneering in sponsoring this group of cattlemen on this tour. We were given a dinner at the Texas Hotel and small over night bags for our trip as favors. Incidentally, Herbert Hoover in 1922, then Secretary of Commerce, named the call letter WBAP (to mean We Bring a Program).

Dignitaries attending the dinner Press; Lee Bonds, United Press; Bill Durham, Agriculture writer, Star-Telegram; Travis Foster, Ranch and Farm section of Star-Telegram; Vivian Gentry, secretary to Layne Beatty; Kenny Fromm, Houston representative, Pan-American; Harold Hough, director of WBAP; Frank Briggs, editor of Farm and Ranch; Norman Eaton, representative of Pan-American. (Norman Eaton and Layne Beatty are traveling with the group).

Two Uruguayan Naval officers, also being entertained at the dinner were on a deal with Cobell Co. at Mitchem Field, Ft. Worth to fly bombers to Uruguay after receiving training in operating them.

We were interviewed over WBAP, Layne Beatty's farm program at 6:30 a. m. Saturday at the Ft. Worth Airport.

We were "fogged in" at Ft. Worth, delaying our take off from 5 a. m. until 9 a. m.

We should be in Panama City by 2 a. m. We haven't seen much today but Gulf clouds and the Gulf. The airports are so far from the towns we have only had a glimpse of them. Our plane circled the town of Guatemala four or five times to gain altitude before going over the mountains to Managua, Nicaragua, where the quaint Spanish type airport is surrounded by an arched bower of Red Bougainvilla. The airport in Guatemala was also very lovely Old Spanish. It is in the country of old Mayan runis. The heavy beams are handsomely carved and grilled wrought iron gates gives it an impression of age.

Canyon Teachers Exhibit Rare Hobbies at Tea

Hobbies were featured at a tea given by Delta Kappa Gamma members in the Federated Club House in Amarillo, on Sunday, February 12, from three until five o'clock.

Miss Ada V. Clark, Miss Carmen Ulm, and Mrs. Ruby Rawlings provided soft background music during the tea.

Miss Mae Simmons, president; Miss Louise Orr, immediate past president; Mrs. E. L. Hunter; and Mrs. T. C. Sparks poured tea during the afternoon.

Hobby displays included china, silver, handkerchief, handwork, weaving, wood carving, cookbooks and recipes, and objects collected during travels. Exhibits by Canyon members were: Miss Darthula Walker, articles brought from almost every country of the Orient; some of these were a Korean pipe and candlestick, a Chinese hand warmer, a sample of silk tied and dyed in India, an elephant of king ebony from Ceylon, a woven basket of Bali, an article of old Batavian brass, a letter opener of Indian ivory, a small box of Chinese lacquer, and other articles from Japan and Java.

Mrs. T. B. McCarter showed beautiful hand carved wooden trays in different sizes and shapes. Miss Mae Simmons had samples of weaving. Miss Elva Fronabarger took a collection of recipes, cookbooks, and pictures of table arrangements. Miss Ada V. Clark displayed a needlepoint picture and scrapbooks made from materials collected during travel.

Hereford Minister Talked Tuesday at Rotary Luncheon

Bob Wear, minister of the Church of Christ of Hereford, talked Tuesday at the luncheon of the Rotary Club on "Church and State."

The speaker gave an historical background to his remarks from the 4th Century when either the church or the state were dominant. Both situations were undesirable.

Today there is a movement on foot to take the old issue into the realm of education. "Teaching religion belongs in the home, and not in the schools," stated the minister. Today there is a deadlock in Congress over the question of federal aid because of this question.

The attitude of indifference on the part of the public toward the dangers of the present education bill is the greatest stumbling block.

Visitors were: W. S. Noland, Bill Cummings, both of Canyon; Ken Bell, E. Kancher, Herman Ford, Frank Storm, Jr., Irving Tolzien, LeRoy White, all of Amarillo.

Better a little well kept, than a great deal forgotten.—Bishop of Latimer.

Getting Meat to Consumers Big Problem Packers

Moving this country's meat from the farms and ranches where it is raised to the centers where it is consumed is a man-sized job.

First of all, it requires a big and alert industry. There are something like 4,000 meat packers in the United States, and 14,000 other commercial slaughterers of livestock. They are constantly competing among themselves for the available supply of meat animals, and they offer the producer a year-round cash market.

Second, there is a long bridge between the producer and the consumer. Most of the meat is raised west of the Mississippi, while most of it is eaten in the east. The main task of the packers is to cross that bridge, and to see that the meat is ready and waiting for the consumer when he goes to market.

Third, the demand cannot be properly met by just bringing certain quantities of meat to the markets. In some parts of the country, the heavy cuts of beef are in greatest demand. In other sections consumer preference runs, for example, to light lean cuts of pork. So it goes. In other words, the particular kind of meat which the consumer wants must be made available.

We all know how successfully this nation-wide job is being accomplished. We had meat shortages during the war and afterward, when rationing and price-fixing were in effect and the black market was booming. But when the forces of supply and demand are permitted to operate in a free economy, we have plenty of meat, and it is sold to us at the lowest price consistent with current conditions.

Band Introduces Three Soloists

Three new soloists will be presented by the West Texas State College Concert Band in a series of concerts this spring.

Jeanne Way, Memphis freshman, slides up and down the trombone, Bonnie Gathrite, Borger freshman, swings a "mean" drumstick, and Beverly Edwards, W. T. High School senior, runs over the keys of the saxophone.

All three girls have won first divisions in state and tri-state contests. They are now appearing as soloists on the band's weekly radio show. Other soloists also will be featured on the concert tour and on later radio programs.

The band will make its next appearance as the official "Governor's Band" at the 4-H Stock Show in Hereford, February 25.

Other bands in the parade will include the Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band, Eastern New Mexico College Band, and several Texas high school bands.

People Control Big, Little But Not Government

Nation's Business recently ran an article by Henry C. Link of the Psychological Corporation dealing with a survey among "little business" to find out what this section of our industrial economy thinks of "big business."

One of the questions was: "Would you rather compete with a private company (large or small) or with a government corporation?" Ninety two per cent replied that they would rather compete with a private company, as against a mere four per cent favoring a government owned business. The remaining four per cent didn't know.

Another question asked: "Which, if any, of the following has produced the most difficult problems for your business: large companies, labor unions, government bureaus, other small companies?" When the answers were tabulated, it was found that 58 per cent said the government bureaus had produced the toughest problems. Large companies and labor unions followed, with but 20 per cent each.

It is clear from this that the smaller businesses of the country now realize that super-government is the worst menace they face—and that, though tough competition with other business may be difficult, to compete with government is virtually impossible. Government has every advantage, it is free from taxes and legislation that applies to other business. It makes laws to suit itself.

The people can control big business or little business. They can't control big government. It can hamstring and dominate all business, regardless of size.

Spur to producers of gold abroad is seen in devaluation.

Malone And Gregory Chosen WT "Sweethearts" In Close Election

In one of the closest elections in the history of the affair, Sammie Malone and Bill Gregory were chosen "Sweethears of 1950" at West Texas State.

A mere handful of votes separated the winners of the Kappa Tau Phi sponsored event from the runners-up, Charlie Brown, Perryton sophomore, and Shirley Hearn, Perryton sophomore. Only a few votes back was the third place winners, Jack Livesay, Lockney junior, and Edith Morrow, Pampa senior.

Sammie, Stratford senior, is a regular on the Buffalo varsity basketball squad and is one of the best-liked men on the campus. Bill, Petersburg senior, is the current reigning basketball queen (elected in 1949), and also a campus favorite.

The winners' identity was a secret until Sammie and Bill were revealed behind a pair of highly decorated doors and presented a large candy-filled valentine, a gift of the Kappa Tau Phi Sorority, who annually sponsor the election and presentation dance.

Harold Pool, Tommy Adkins, and Irv Akst furnished the music for the dance with vocals by Adkins and Guy Delle Ekelund.

The Valentine Day Dance was in the Cousins Hall Ball Room Tuesday night, and the Kappas had given the hall one of the year's best decorating jobs.

The Buffalo basketball squad won two of three games on the trip into New Mexico for the week end.

The team now stands tied for second place in the Border Conference for the entire season, but dropped to fifth place in the Border Conference with teams on this circuit.

New Mexico University was defeated Thursday night at Albuquerque by a score of 70 to 61.

New Mexico Aggies defeated the Buffs Friday night at Las Cruces, 50 to 49 when a final shot of the Buffs failed to go through the basket.

Texas Western at El Paso fell an easy victim of the Buffs Saturday night at El Paso, 72 to 49.

The last four games of the season will be played at Burton Gym. New Mexico Aggies will be here Wednesday night; Texas Western on Thursday night; Arizona University on March 1; Texas Tech on March 4.

Former Canyon Boy Likes Life in Japan

Corporal Ernest Franks visited in the home of Mrs. Vici Turner last week after having visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Frank, Enid, Okla.

Corporal Frank, a former student of Canyon High School, has been with the armed forces in Tokyo, Japan, for the last 37 months. He has been in the service 40 months. His work is as a M. P. at Sugamo Prison.

He reported that the Japanese were quite friendly with all American forces on the island. Rebuilding of the homes is progressing rapidly, but they are being rebuilt with much cheaper material and with less permanent appearance than homes that were not damaged by the bombings; business sections show little damage. Prices are high but foreign traders coming in are bringing prices down.

Military and civilian government workers are supplied with comfortable living quarters. Beautiful schools have been built for American children there with these forces.

Cpl. Frank played on the championship football team with the forces there last fall. He likes it there and is returning with complete satisfaction with his assignment.

45th Birthday of Rotary Will Be Observed Feb. 23

Feb. 23 will be Rotary's 45th birthday, and nearly 7,000 clubs in 82 countries will pay tribute again to the work of the late Paul Harris of Chicago, who founded the first Rotary club there in 1905.

This young lawyer suggested the idea of a regular meeting of a group of professional men, rotating from office to office. When the luncheon idea was added, the meetings soon established regular meeting places.

Rotary's activities are based on the development of fellowship among business and professional men, the betterment of communities, the promotion of high standards, the advancement of international understanding, good will and peace.

The basic objective of Rotary is "to be thoughtful of and helpful to others." Many shades of political and religious beliefs are represented among Rotary's selected membership.

Through the Rotary Foundation, Rotarians provide fellowships for students to study in a "foreign" land. During the past three years 111 fellowships have been awarded students of 26 countries.

In recent years, Rotarians shipped 12,000 packages of food and clothing overseas for friends across the sea. A definite program of education has been carried on to acquaint members with the work of United Nations, and the booklets prepared by Rotary International office in Chicago are being used in many schools and colleges studying the peace-efforts of UN and its related agencies.

President Truman says "Rotary's principle of individual responsibility for the creation of peace and friendship, carried into action by its international membership, can contribute significantly to the protection and enrichment of the free world."

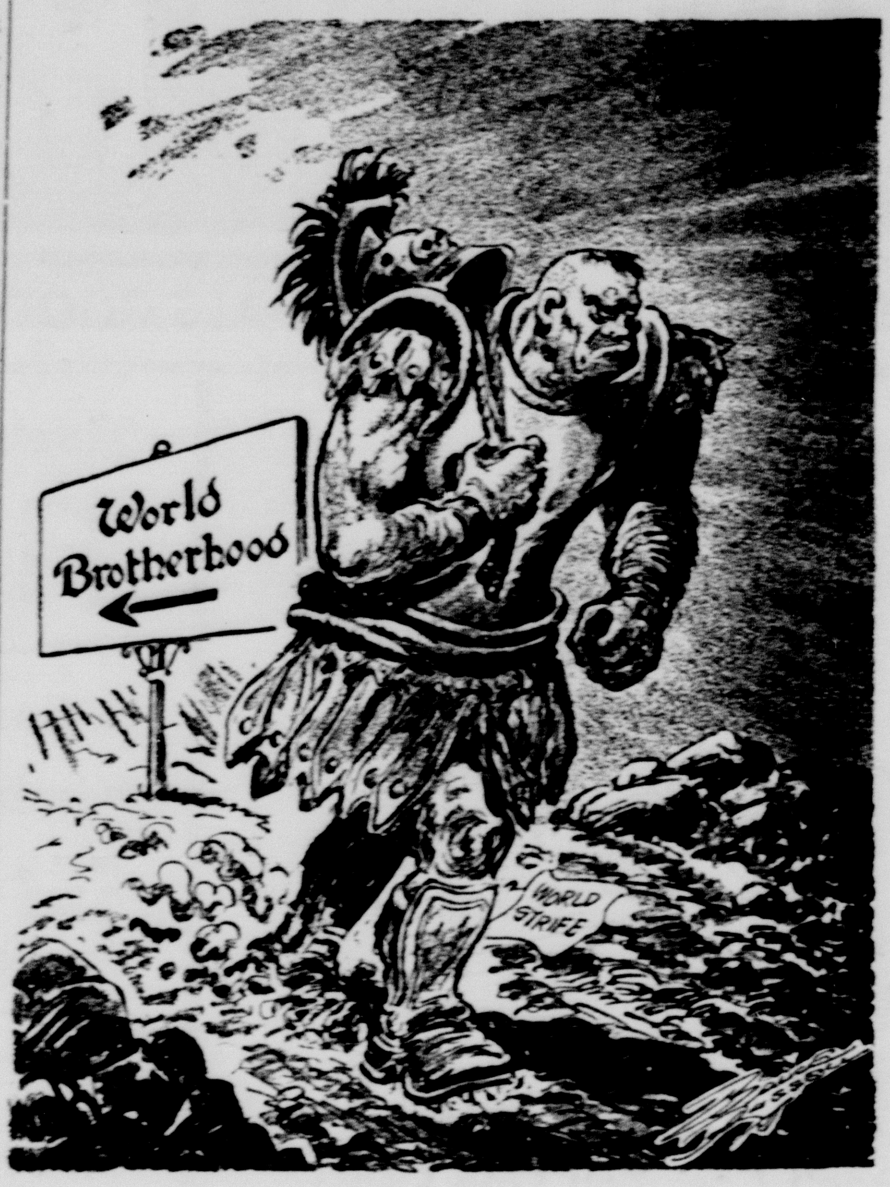
THIS COULD HAPPEN HERE



Paul Hoffman and the Marshall Plan administration he heads are shifting signals in Europe. The new signals call for a change from emphasis on deflation and a strengthening of European currencies to a measure of internal inflation at the expense of stable currencies, if need be. Mr. Hoffman's aides are worried by the rise of unemployment in Europe and are insisting that nations start financing some internal pump-priming operations as an offset.

Mao Tse-tung, China's No. 1 communist, has been getting the sort of going over in Moscow that Hitler used to give puppet leaders he wanted to keep in line. Stalin doesn't trust Mao and has insisted on getting iron-clad guarantees to assure getting what he wants out of China before letting China's Mao go back home. Russian agents have been rearranging things in China during Mao's absence.

Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, is not making much progress in his arguments with Charles Brannan, Secretary of Agriculture over dumping of U. S. farm surpluses on world markets. Mr. Acheson is unable to offer very firm plans, of the kind Congress would approve, to take the place of dumping of surpluses abroad.

Reports that Russians are running a big submarine base in Albania, next door to the Mediterranean, are turning out to be phony. Non-Soviet merchant ships, moving in and out of the area without too much difficulty, report no signs that the Russians either possess or are building bases on that Adriatic coast.

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI head, is being tacitly assured by leaders in Congress that no new restrictions will be placed against use of wire tapping to obtain information about the activities of subversive groups in this country.

George Kennan, top policy planner for the State Department and author of the idea that Russia could be "contained" while she got ready to blow up, now says this: "It is imperative that we economize with our limited resources and that we apply them where we feel they will do the most good. This means a system of priorities." Not everybody is to get U. S. help in the future.

Lieut. Gen. Leslie Groves, wartime head of atomic energy development, is being left to hold the bag of responsibility for allowing foreign scientists, who might have been spies, to get in on the deepest atomic secrets. J. Edgar Hoover, FBI head, was careful to let Congress know that nobody asked him to police the atomic projects prior to 1947.

President Truman is acting deliberately in giving rather sharp and uncommunicative answers to a good many questions now being asked of him in his press conferences. The President is known to feel that many newspapers and newspapermen give what he considers unfair treatment to his views on many issues. Mr. Truman finds that he gets into less trouble by simply not answering many questions.

It still is uncertain whether the B-36, in which U. S. is putting much of its defense money, is big enough to carry an H-bomb, when one is made. Bombers already are so big that military planners regard them as highly vulnerable to new weapons available to the defense.

Judge's Rulings Cutting Down Traffic Deaths

LOS ANGELES. — Judge Roger Alton Pfaff, tough but fair-minded war veteran, was becoming one of the most talked-about men in Los Angeles and his reputation was spreading beyond his own borders.

His domain is the downtown Civic Center traffic court here. He is operating in the manner of a black-robed evangelist to stop the terrific traffic carnage which has been rampant here.

Since he began handing out penalties, the traffic death rate in Los Angeles had dived. Deaths by autos numbered 409 in 1947. After only 10 months of Judge Pfaff's term, they amounted to 289—a drop of 30 per cent. Los Angeles had gone from the highest of the 14 big United States cities in traffic tolls to fourth from lowest.

The Pfaff crusade was born 14 years ago when he, a young law student, was haled into court on a charge of driving through a red light. The judge asked for his plea.

"Guilty, but—"

"Five dollars. Next case."

The judge recalls that he came out of the courtroom "boiling mad."

The next years were too busy for him to devote any time to traffic infractions. He was graduated from law school, practiced in Los Angeles, served in the state legislature and in the infantry and OSS during the war.

Highway Deaths Shocking

Returning from Europe, he was shocked to observe slaughter on United States highways that measured that of the battlefield. When he was appointed a Los Angeles municipal judge in 1948, he surprised his colleagues by requesting traffic court duty. Most of them avoided it.

Los Angeles drivers now warn each other, "Judge Pfaff will get you if you don't watch out!" They have reason to fear the 42-year-old jurist. An offender came before him with a record of two previous $100 drunk driving fines. He was charged with driving without a license.

"I notice in the officer's report," said the judge, "that you stated you were not going to serve time, that you had lived in California long enough so that you could 'pull strings' and pay fines. Well, it looks as if you're in the wrong court. You can't buy that kind of driving here."

The sentence: 180 days in jail.

Stiff judgments aren't the only element of the Pfaff formula. He preaches traffic safety with a zeal of a Billy Sunday. Before each session he tells the defendants:

"I want each of you to become a crusader for better driving."

Offers Advice

He talks for 20 minutes and offers this advice:

"1. Practice courtesy. Sixty per cent of citations arise from failure to yield the right of way. Why be so rude to one another? Courtesy can be infectious. Try it.

"2. Slow down! If you are late to work, don't try to make it up on the road. You'd be better off staying at home in bed and not going to work at all."

The lectures have paid off. Of the 200,000 persons who passed through his court in 1948, only two percent returned. One happy defendant wrote the Los Angeles Times:

"Maybe it's the heat! For imagine receiving a ticket for speeding, spending the morning in traffic court, getting fined $20 and thoroughly enjoying the consequences . . .

"Truly the judge is a man with a mission going far beyond the call of duty in a tremendous personal effort to assist the cause of traffic safety. . ."

Religious Motto on Coins First Used in Civil War

WICHITA, KANSAS.—It is not generally known, but the motto "In God we trust" which appears on American coins was put there by public demand. It was done during the Civil War when religion had reached one of its highest points during the history of the United States.

Letters by the thousands urging some kind of religious motto on U.S. coins poured in to President Lincoln and Treasury Secretary Salmon P. Chase. There is some evidence that Lincoln, himself, advised such a motto after receiving a letter from a clergyman. Other countries had followed the practice for centuries.

Chase instructed the director of the mint on November 30, 1861, to prepare such a device. He said that "no nation can be strong except in the strength of God, or safe except in His defense. The trust of our people in God should be declared on our national coins."

Several suggested forms of a motto were prepared, including one that read, "God Our Trust," and "God and Our Country" First use of the present motto was on the 2c piece of 1864. That was the first year this coin appeared, and it was minted yearly until 1873.

OUR DEMOCRACY——by Mat

The Vital Spark

HISTORY SHOWS THAT THE VITAL SPARK ~ THE CREATIVE POWER OF HUMAN PROGRESS, MATERIAL AND SPIRITUAL, RESIDES IN THE INDIVIDUAL.

WE ALL DEPEND UPON THIS SPARK, BECAUSE OF ITS ESSENTIAL FUNCTION IN PRODUCTION. WHAT WE EAT, WHAT WE WEAR, OUR STANDARD OF LIVING, IS DETERMINED FIRST BY WHAT THE PEOPLE PRODUCE. AND IT IS THE INITIATIVE OF THE INDIVIDUAL, HIS INGENUITY AND INVENTIVENESS, THAT GENERATE THE DRIVING FORCE OF PRODUCTION.

HERE IN AMERICA WE HAVE NOURISHED THE VITAL SPARK BY ENCOURAGING SELF-RELIANCE, REWARDING ACHIEVEMENT, RECOGNIZING THE DIGNITY OF THE INDIVIDUAL.

THE ONLY REAL GUARANTEE OF PROGRESS AND ECONOMIC SECURITY LIES IN THE FREE PLAY OF THE CREATIVE POWERS OF THE INDIVIDUAL.

Common Colds Are Common to Most Folks But Dangerous

There is hardly anyone who hasn't caught cold at one time or another and besides making you feel miserable they steal your time and money, declares, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. They fool you too, because the early signs are often the same as those of more serious illnesses.

Long continued colds may pave the way for an attack of pneumonia, tuberculosis, or a chronic infection of the nose, throat, ears or sinuses. Do your best to keep from catching cold. If you do catch one, take care of it promptly by going to bed, keep warm and dry, drink plenty of citrus juices and water. If cold is severe, consult your physician.

Another enemy is pneumonia, an acute infection of the lungs. Virus pneumonia is the most common of all pneumonias today. It may occur at any age, and usually appears in local outbreaks instead of far reaching epidemics. In any case of pneumonia, good medical care and nursing play a great role in recovery.

Lobar pneumonia is caused by a bacteria, not a virus, and is very contagious. A generation ago one out of every four who had this disease died. Today thanks to the "miracle drugs" many are saved. It is most common in late winter and early spring.

The most frequent victims of broncho-pneumonia are the aged, the invalid and the baby.

Mr. Truman remains allergic to the idea that he should try again to open lines of communication with Joseph Stalin in Russia. The President remembers the political kickback that followed his plan to send Chief Justice Rred Vinson to Moscow. Even the top Democrats pulled back from the thought of talks as a possible alternative to more "cold war."

Representative Franklin Roosevelt, ambitious to get the Democratic nomination for the Governorship of New York, is beginning to devote a little more attention to the work of Congress. Pot shots, taken by Republicans at the Roosevelt attendance record in committees and on the floor, caused some political damage.

HOT BIRD!

Recently after attending a football game, several out-of-town college boys put up for the night in a certain Southern hotel. When one of their number passed out of the picture from drinking too much corn whiskey, his friends decided to have a little fun with him.

They conveyed their unconscious comrade to his room, smeared his body with vaseline, and then gave him a coat of feathers from the pillow. Then as a parting gesture, they turned up the heat in his room full force.

The following morning the inebriated student awoke in the stifling heat of his room, and gazed bleary-eyed into the full-length mirror opposite his head.

"My God!" he croaked. "Gone to h . . .l and turned into a bird!"

Reviving Russian blasts against U. S. and Britain for failing to invade Europe earlier in World War II are causing high military officals to recall how Stalin, during Allied meetings, never could be convinced that it was harder to cross the Atlantic Ocean and English Channel than to move armies across the big rivers of Europe. One kind of water barrier seemed to Stalin to be about the same as another.

Policy makers for the Republican party, in their statement of principles, avoided tangling with the White House and Democratic Party on the issue of more aid for Chiang Kai-shek. Republicans as a party pulled back from a recommendation that this country take more of a part in defending the island of Formosa.

Juniors Stage "That Brewster Boy" on Next Tuesday

Bonnie Bates, Linda Dooley, begs Dad Brewster to marry her widowed mother, Mary Ann Sloan. But Dad in the mix-up goes to pieces. An officer, Stanley Schaeffer, insists he is going to make an arrest, while Grandmother, Anita Ruthart, and others of the cast watch proceedings in horror.

Closer, closer, and closer creeps that long awaited night of February 28—the night when "That Brewster Boy," namely Don Johnson, his family and his friends " 'er gonna open the curtains and let all usens' take a peek inside."

I can just see it all now. Soft music is being played while the audience gathers. Then the house lights dim, the curtain rises and —Ah, ha—that my dear friends is where the fun begins.

Curiosity killed the cat, and shucks, I reckon as ta' how it's gonna' get me too if the 28th don't hurry up and get here so's they can open that CLOSET DOOR. Can't seem ta' picturate how in the cat hair a little ole' closet can play such an important part, but the juniors tell me it sho' nuf' does—and they ought ta' know.

Yep, these juniors and their foremen on this "big deal," all being a right sly bunch o' critters, tell ya' jest enough ta' start that ole' brain cell a' clickin'.

Mr. and Mrs. Pool, the directors of this three act comedy, report that—"The play is coming along very well —much better than could be expected—especially with all our competition. We have a wonderful cast. So far they are really a bunch of go-getters. But don't tell them that. We have them thinking they aren't. Mr. Schultz, too, has been wonderful help and very co-operative. It's really been a lot of fun."

Pee Wee, James Miller, unnoticed, decides to take aspirin. Dad Brewster, Robert McClendon, gives Mother Brewster, Merle Bullard, a string of pearls, and Phil Hayworth, Richmond Payne, coaxes Nancy Brewster, Barbara McDougal, to accept an engagement ring.

RAH FOR YOU, FARMERS!

Congratulations FFA Members. This is your week. The whole nation takes pride in your accomplishments. CHS has had a progressive chapter for many years.

The Panhandle's first FFA club began in Silverton, 1931, and since that time the organization has expanded to almost every school in the Panhandle.

Future Farmers of America study practical things about farming; such as: stock raising, poultry farming, growing row crops, gardening and landscaping.

There are 300,000 boys in the United States that belong to this organization. That is one reason there are so many progressive farmers in our nation; one reason for our abundance of food!

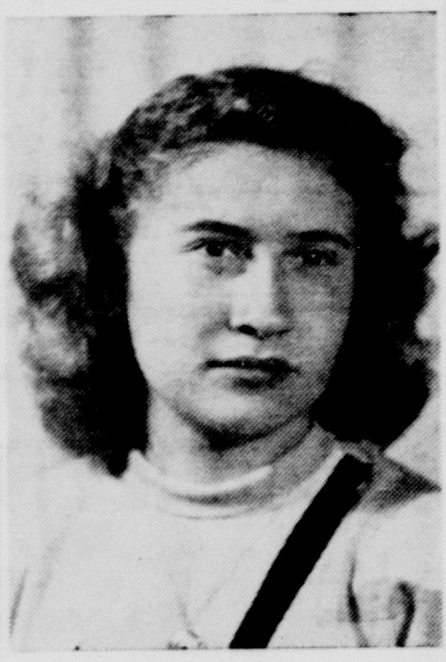
Canyon SFC Members Visit Tulia Schools Last Tuesday

The Student Faculty Congress went to Tulia last week to visit Tulia's Campus and to see the difference in our school system. The members of the SFC first visited different classes and saw the new Home Economics Laboratory, Agriculture building, and saw the new gym which has just been completed.

The members ate dinner at the new cafeteria, then discussed different activities both schools have. This trip helped the SFC members to know more about running our school better. The members were very pleased with the way the new school looked.

The members who made the trip were Barbara McDougal, Richmond Payne, Travis Payne, Robert McClendon, Joanna Haines, Elvira Boyd, Richard Sanders, Carlene Rogers. The members all had a very good time while at Tulia.

District Winner



Donna Erwin

In a recent letter to Superintendent E. A. Wooten, Grady Wilson, superintendent of Potter County Schools, informed him that Donna Erwin, Canyon High's DAR district representative won the district Drawing. Donna will be eligible for the final drawing held at Austin soon. The winner of the state drawing will receive a $100 bond.

Groups of students from West Texas State College were here last week for special guidance for their benefit as well as ours. These students interviewed several members of the faculty and different students throughout the school.

Teddy Lowe and Landon Barrett livened thridy period study hall last Friday with their game of cowboys and guns.

Shame on you, Landon, for taking Teddy's gun away from him to play with yourself!

Society Sue

Spring is well on the way and with it come the shorter, cooler hair styles. For example—have you noticed that the scissors have been whacking away at Sue Jennings', Melva Martin's, Shirley Priddy's Ava Dooley's and Mary Ruth Hill's locks?

Bobby Gibson sports a very sporty sports shirt of red, brown, green and tan plaid.

Hi-Ho Trigger—and from out of a cloud of dust rides Lloyd (Roy Rogers) Johnson all decked out in his western garb.

Speaking of the West—six-guns blazed and fancy boots tromped down the halls of the ole' ranch house a few days back when all the eighth graders showed off their cowboy regalia at a shindig.

Ray Schultz is really a' bowlin' 'em over with his red tie designed with bowling pins and balls.

Flashing, dashing, clashing sweaters of every color from pea green to bright pink seem to be the fling of the day. Yes sir, the rainbow has really "done gone" and invaded Canyon High.

Barbara McDougal's Chinese style lavendar blouse and Bobbie Ford's royal blue one are good examples of sleekness.

Prince Charming

Richard Payne is Prince Charming of the Canyon Chapter of FHA this year. Elected by secret ballot, the identity of Prince Charming was kept secret until February 13, the night of the Sweetheart Banquet, when it was announced.

The invocation was given by Superintendent Wooten, after which Martha Hales gave the welcome. Anita Ruthardt, Betty Jean Graham, and Barbara McDougal formed a trio to sing "Dreamers Holiday." Bettie Jean Graham, accompanied by Harrell Slack at the piano, sang "Wonderful One."

Dr. Onah Jacks, head of the homemaking Department at WTSC, spoke on the word, sweetheart.

Barbara McDougal and Harrell Slack, accompanied by Florence Coffee, sang "Sweetheart." Merle Bullard, mistress of ceremonies, announced the name of Prince Charming, and presented him with an FHA pin.

The banquet menu included: a tomato juice cocktail with cheese crackers, barbecued ham, scolloped potatoes, frozen peas, radish roses, celery curls, hot rolls, a pineapple ring salad, iced tea, and ice cream topped with strawberries.

Spun glass formed the decorations with a pink and white color scheme. Large pink balls and white sprays of the spun glass were arranged on sheets of silved paper running the entire length of the tables. White tapers were used, and the decoration scheme was completed by a profusion of pink glass balls on the piano.

Approximately one hundred people attended the banquet.

Winn, Burrus, Abbott Make All-District Cage Team

Once more the Eagles have brought honor and a trophy to Canyon High School. Canyon made off with every game they played in the district tournament at Dumas to win first place in District 1-A and represent this district in regional. Other winners of districts, comprising this region are Sudan, Abernathy, and Shamrock.

First to fall before the Eagles' attack in Dumas' new gym was Hereford by a score of 60-36 Thursday night at 8:00.

Burrus High

Troy Burrus was hitting jump shots, set shots and underhand lay ups to take high point honors with 16.

Joe Abbott gave the opposition all kinds of trouble on offense and defense. Joe was second in scoring in the Hereford game with 13 talleys.

Bruce Winn hit consistently from all over the court to garner 10 points.

Garland Butler and Ray Burrus each hit the basket for two field goals and a free toss for five points apiece besides lending heighth and hustle for rebounds and stolen balls. Bob Busteed was shary on defense and setting up plays.

The Eagles took an early lead and all of the boys that were taken saw action.

Beat Perryton

Joe Abbott led the scoring with 10 points followed by Bill Samples with 9, Troy Burrus with 8, Bill Morton with 7, Bob Ratliff and Harrell Slack each had 6 markers.

In the semi-finals Friday night Canyon overcame Dumas 38-25. The Demons led 15-12 at the close of the first half. But in the third quarter Canyon pulled ahead 26-21 and 38-25 at the final gun.

Troy Burrus again found the range of the basket and was good for 15 points. Joe Abbott trailed close with 12.

The Eagles were again pitted against the Demons of Dumas in the finals Saturday night after Dumas beat Dalhart. Canyon topped the Demons 27-18.

Both teams played slow deliberate ball with fireball interludes to thrill the crowds.

Three Places

Ray Burrus and Joe Abbott shared the scoring spotlight with seven points each. Troy Burrus shadowed them with six to his credit.

Guy Rowe Work In WT Exhibit

Three original paintings by Guy Rowe, distinguished American painter best known for Time Magazine covers, which are taken from the new Biblical book "In Our Image," will be shown in the Panhandle-Plains Museum here on the campus March 9, 10, and 11.

The paintings are some of the 32 which were done as illustrations for "In Our Image," a collection of narratives from the Old Testament, written by Houston Harte, Texas newspaper publisher.

"In Our Image" is a presentation of Old Testament characters as the kind of human beings they were in real life with their weaknesses and frailities, all lkie people of today. The requirement for the paintings was an artist who could live with the words of the Bible until they became sufficiently real to him to translate their meaning on canvas. Before making a single brush stroke, Mr. Rowe spent months reading and rereading the Old Testament.

For his models Mr. Rowe used people in real life who seemed to him to be the physical reincarnation of Biblical characters. These he found among his own friends, on trains and planes, in great world figures of today, and even in his own family. In a cafeteria in New York City, he encountered a man who reminded him of Elijah. He found the man there every day for three weeks and he continued to study every line and plane in his subject's face.

The stories in "In Our Image" were taken from a list of 50 stories in the Old Testament which seemed most significant and interesting to a group of clergymen. Twenty-six of these were selected by the author for use in the book. The name of the was taken from the 26th verse of the opening chapter of Genesis. Upon its publication in the fall of 1949, the book created a stir because of its unorthodox treatment of traditional figures. Clergymen and art critics joined in the public discussion of the book's unusual characteristics. Mr. Harte, the author, served for twelve years as director of the Associated Press and is publisher and owner of the San Angelo Standadr and Standard Times.

NATURALLY

A stranger in the West asked a native, "Is this a healthy place?"

The Westerner replied: "It sure is. Why when I came here I was bald, couldn't walk, and had to be lifted from my bed."

"Wonderful!" said the visitor. "How long have you been here?"

"Oh," was the reply, "I was born here!"

CORRECTION

Teacher: Johnny, if you had twenty sheep and one ran away, how many would you have left?

Johnny: None.

Teacher: Wrong. You would have nineteen left.

Johnny: "Miss Jones, you may know arithmetic, but you don't know sheep."

HOPELESS

"Where's your pencil, Maggie?"

"Ain't got one, Miss Jones."

"How many times have I told you not to say that? Listen: I haven't one, you haven't one, they haven't one. Now do you understand?"

"Well, where's all the pencils if nobody ain't got one?"

Baby Girl Survives After Lung Collapse From Inhaled Bean

CHICAGO, ILL.—A 14-month-old girl whose lung collapsed when a bean lodged in it, is recovering after a 107-mile race in which her ambulance burned out its motor, attendants forgot all-important X-ray plates and her supply of oxygen ran out.

The chain of incidents was set off when a common navy bean fell off a shelf in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Airgood at Berrien Center, Mich.

Their daughter, Patsy Ann, found the bean and put it in her mouth. Then she inhaled it into her right bronchial tube. By the next day the bean had swelled with moisture to the size of an apricot. It blocked off her breathing passage and collapsed her right lung.

Soon she began turning blue and an X-ray showed she was likely to die. A doctor recommended that she be taken to Chicago as quickly as possible.

Undertaker Francis A. Bowerman, of Eau Claire, Mich., volunteered to drive her in his ambulance. The Airgoods accompanied him and the X-ray plates were stowed in the glove compartment. Scores of officers in Michigan and Indiana kept track of the ambulance by radio.

At Gary, Ind., the ambulance's motor burned out. Officers quickly transferred Patsy Ann to another ambulance. But they and the attendants forgot the X-ray plates until the ambulance was out of town. Bowerman was driven back in a police car to pick up the plates.

Meanwhile, the second ambulance's supply of oxygen, necessary to keep Patsy Ann alive, ran out. East Chicago firemen heard of the situation by radio. An inhalator squad intercepted the ambulance and supplied a new tank. That was where Bowerman, carrying the X-ray plates, caught up with the ambulance.

Chicago police took over the escort job at the city limits and the ambulance tore through the main business district with sirens screaming.

Arriving at Children's Memorial hospital, officers took the girl directly to the operating room, where surgeons performed a bronchoscopic operation within minutes and removed the bean.

Hospital officials Thursday said the girl was "resting fine" and that her condition was "much improved," although still critical.

Law Has No Way to Punish Young British Bank Robber

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND.—Because the law could find no way to punish him, Britain's youngest bank robber, age 8, must go scot free.

The boy, whose identity was withheld, broke into the British Linen bank of Glasgow. He was caught in the act. Detectives said the boy admitted he broke in with intent to steal.

The child's lawyer insisted his client was simply "imbued with the spirit of Alice in Wonderland." He told the court:

"He wanted to know what was on the other side of the bank window. When he got in, he found not the March hare or the mad hatter, but an astounded bank teller."

It was the teller who seized the culprit.

The puzzled magistrate said the boy could be sent to a reform school, but observed: "But I don't expect they would be pleased to see an 8-year-old boy."

He freed the boy with a scolding and a warning to the parents.

Ancient Monastery Found In Suburbs Near Cairo

CAIRO.—A 64-room monastery, believed to be of the Byzantine period, has been reported unearthed. It was found at Helwan, a suburb of this city, according to reports.

Dr. Zaky Saad, of the royal excavations, said it was a Coptic monastery and is believed to have housed many famous Egyptian historians.

Fragments of glass and pottery, as well as gold, silver, and bronze coins found on the site, show that the monastery was in use as early as the 8th century A.D. There is no evidence of the time when it was finally deserted.

It is believed that this is the monastery mentioned by the Arab historians Sbu Salih and El Shaboshty, who state that Caliph Abdel Aziz Ibn Marawan stayed at a monastery in Halwan during an illness.

To the north of the monastery are the remains of small red brick canals, obviously used for irrigating gardens there. To the south is a cemetery containing 36 tombs, of which 15 are intact. The bodies were wrapped in cloth, completely decayed, and nothing was left of the coffins but pieces of rusted iron.

This cemetery was obviously the burial place of monks, as all the bodies recovered are those of men. With one of the bodies was a flat rectangle of ivory, bearing a Coptic inscription, but it was too decayed to be deciphered.

Twenty-eight pieces are used in the game of dominoes.

Hidden Taxes Multiply Cost of Living Here

In an editorial called "Those Hidden Taxes," the New York Herald Tribune observes, "The citizen who grin and bears it each week when he takes note of deductions from his take home pay, or who gulps when he makes the quarterly payment on his income tax, has perhaps mercifully been spared a consciousness of the hidden taxes which fall upon him every day. . . . The problem of tax reform, however, requires knowledge on the part of the citizens. It is to the advantage of the individual that he sees through the tax smokescreen which the experts have laid down—that he feel the pain of what has been devised to be painless."

The Herald-Tribune ran a series of factual articles, by Robert S. Bird, dealing with the impact of hidden taxes on the ordinary taxpayer. It is a sure bet that not one citizen in ten thousand has any accurate idea of how deep these taxes cut into his earnings. For instance, on a $10,000 house it was found that no less than 639 hidden taxes were involved in the construction, development of site, and purchase financing. These taxes, Mr. Bird says, were collected by the Federal and state governments from the architect, builder, banks, agents, insurance companies, contractor, manufacturers, jobbers and others.

Hidden taxes are not confined to big purchases like a house. The Tax Foundation found that 151 taxes applied to a loaf of bread. A woman's spring hat carried 150 taxes. A man's suit came in for 116. A humble egg accounted for 100. Mr. Bird writes: "In none of these studies were local taxes taken into account, nor the Federal and state levies on the various steps behind the supply and manufacturing point. As an example of how complex the tax-shifting devices work, the economists found that even the length of time an article remains in stock sometimes determines who bears the weight of a particular tax."

No one knows the actual total of hidden taxes. Estimates indicate they may run as high as $700 per family per year. And, of course, they come on top of all direct taxes. The magnitude of the latter is shown by the fact that in 1949 the average taxpayer worked one month for the Federal government to pay the Federal income tax alone.

The Federal government is the biggest tax eater by far. It takes 71 cents of each tax dollar, while the states take 15 cents and local units 14 cents. By contrast, in 1932, the Federal government took but 22 per cent and in 1939, 39 per cent.

What to do about this tremendous problem is a tough question. The Herald-Tribune says, "The overlapping of tax jurisdictions, the continuance of taxes which have outlived their original purpose, the crushing proportions of the tax burden as a whole, require the most careful study. . . . But the first step is to know, and the second is to be aroused."

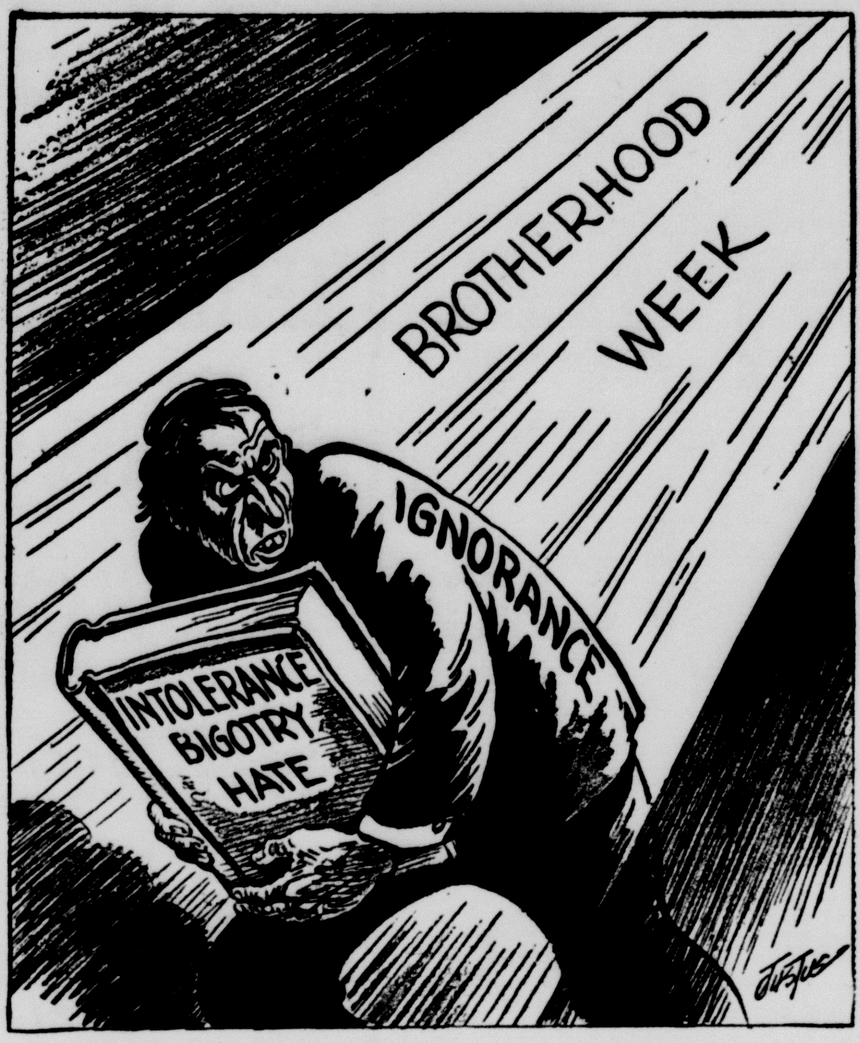
SPOTLIGHTING THE CULPRIT



Amarillo Gets Set for Annual Livestock Show and Sale

A Livestock Judging Contest for F. F. A. and 4-H Club boys will be a new feature of the 1950 Amarillo Fat Stock Show. Last year a boy's Grass Judging Contest attracted much interest and it will be held again this year. The show will operate on its usual "free gate" system, the dates being March 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10.

The Amarillo Show is recognized as one of the outstanding livestock shows for 4-H and F. F. A. exhibitors of beef calves, fat swine, and lambs for boys from Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico. The new livestock building will add to the housing facilities which have been very crowded, according to Art Bralley, Secretary.

The sale of Hereford breeding cattle for Wednesday, March 8, will be one of the highlights of the show. March 9 will be "Quarter Horse Day" and this will attract people from throughout the nation to the Quarter Horse Association meeting in Amarillo during the Show. Jack Roach, President, Amarillo Fat Stock Show, expects the 1950 event to be one of the best in the long and colorful history of the Amairllo Show.

West Texas Musicians Host To Visiting High Schools

Two high school bands were recently the guests of the West Texas Buffalo Band. The musicians were from Hereford and Canyon High Schools.

The college band helped the visitors with concert music which both high school bands will be required to play at the spring contest here in April.

Other bands from surrounding Panhandle towns have been invited to visit on the campus this semester.

UNFORTUNATE ANGLES

Another thing that greatly retards the progress of man is that the peculiar design followed in his physical structure so aptly fits him for sitting down.

Harold C. Urey, atomic scientist: "We need greater political unity of the democratic countries of the world. In fact, we need federal union with the other democracies."

Hans A. Bethe, physicist, Cornell University: "Until we have international control, we cannot afford not to have the hydrogen bomb."

Homonyms are words which sound alike but differ in meaning such as dear and deer.

SOME CONSOLATION

One thing seldom happens to us in America, anyway. They don't often broadcast bagpipe music.

Robert E. Wood, mail order retailer: "We frown on dictatorships in general and Communistic dictatorships in particular."

Norman Thomas, Socialist party leader: "We must recapture for America a leadership for peace. We have lost it."
